We back possibilities.

Superclusters strengthen Canada's most promising industries, where private sector, academic institutions, not-for-profits, and others come together to energize economies and create resilient, well-paying jobs.

The Strategic Innovation Fund invests in innovative businesses—helping them scale-up, research, develop and commercialize cutting-edge ideas and collaborate in new ways.

We back big ideas.

Innovative Solutions Canada is dedicated to supporting Canadian innovators who want to start, grow, and get to market, by funding for R&D and testing prototypes in real-life settings.

ExploreIP is a marketplace for businesses looking to access intellectual property held by public sector institutions in Canada.

We back game changers.

Clean Growth Hub gives entrepreneurs and businesses with clean technology projects a personal guide to answer questions, talk through options or make introductions.

Accelerated Growth Service is all about rolling up our sleeves to give high-growth companies one advisor for all of government... someone to knock on doors, pick up the phone and make the right connections.
